Art and Cultural Partners during the World Bodypainting Festival Week

The exhibition “The Magic Angle“ from Johannes Stötter, a South Tyrolean Bodypainting Artist will be part of this year’s World Bodypainting Festival. The exhibition opening will take place on July 11th 2018 at 8pm in Living Studio in the City Gallery Klagenfurt. From July 12th 2018 everyone who is interested can visit the exhibition daily from Tuesday to Sunday (10am – 6pm) until August 5th 2018. The well-known artist not only has many years of experience in bodypainting but has also won numerous competitions. The vice-world-champion-title 2011 for the brush/sponge category and the world-champion-title of 2012, in the same category, are only a few of his achievements. Since 2009 the artist is part of the World Bodypainting Festival and impresses each and everyone every year with his new and creative stagings that are often related to nature. Many of his creations contain animal motives and consist of several models which are not recognizable at first glance. Johannes Stötter got internationally known because of his illusion „The Chameleon“. To create the chameleon he transformed two models into a colourfoul illusion of this versatile reptile. During the workshop „Camouflage Bodypainting“, on Monday, July 8th 2018, he will pass on his knowledge to participants. The workshop is part of the World Bodypainting Academy Programme, taking place before the main days of the World Bodypainting Festival.

Beside the Stadtgalerie the World Bodypainting Festival works together with many other cultural institutions that are located in Klagenfurt such as MMKK Museum of Modern Art Carinthia, BV Gallery and the Robert Musil Literature House. During the whole festival week, a wide range of different and impressive exhibitions to choose from is offered. „Symbiodies“ a dance performance and exhibition by Italien-based Elena Tagliapietra is another example.

Tip: Many museums and galleries in Klagenfurt can be visited with a valid Festival Ticket for free during the whole festival week.
