“garden of the senses” a multisensory installation by Agnieszka Glińska

“Garden of the senses” the multisensory installation by artist, dancer and choreographer Agnieszka Glińska will take place during the World Bodypainting Festival 2019. The opening takes place on July 10th 2019 at Stadtgalerie Klagenfurt. Agnieszka Glińska, who founded the modern dance company Art Color Ballet in 1998 in Krakow, will fascinate the audience with her installation in many ways. Through the connection of different dance styles (Modern Dance, Pantomime, Afro-Dance) the ensemble transforms every show into something spectacular and unique. Art Collor Ballet combines dance, sound and movement on side and works together with many talented people such as dancers, (make-up) artists and photographers on the other side. Since 2003 Agnieszka Glińska and the Art Collor Ballet are also members of the World Bodypainting Association and were able to win many international prizes.

Besides the Stadtgalerie the World Bodypainting Festival has many different cultural partners such as the MMKK Museum of Modern Art Carinthia and the BV Gallery which offer a variety of interesting and diverse exhibitions.

TIP: With the World Bodypainting Festival tickets you can visit many different museums and galleries in the city for free.
